MUNICH, March 1894.

Dear Sir,

According to the wish of a good many of our American clients, to keep them posted up with our new acquisitions, especially by younger rising artists, we send you as a trial the present small illustrated catalogue.

As a matter of course, we will continue to do so from time to time if our new idea finds general favor and if our friends avail themselves of the opportunity, which we offer them, to buy paintings so to say direct from the artists.

Through our old connexions with the principal Continental artists we have occasion to acquire the paintings direct in the studios at the lowest possible prices. We offer them again in the same way to our clients, only adding for our own outlays and a small commission.

Through the general depression in trade, pictures can now be bought very reasonable and as our illustrations are only in black and white, buyers will be sure to find the originals much prettier than the reproductions.

Trusting you will avail yourselves of our offer, we remain, dear Sir,

Yours very truly

E. H. Fleischmann.

Conditions of Sale.

1. The size without frame of every picture is noted on foot of the illustrations together with the Cableword.

3. The amount for the purchase has only to be paid after receipt of the picture.
4. Our offer is made: provided the picture is not sold at receipt of buyer's reply, but the firm will always try to reserve the picture till the time a cable answer can be at hand and in case several buyers will turn up for the same painting we will decide by lot, to whom the picture shall be sent, we consider this the fairest way.
